

THE BUILDER

Published Weekly by the Kiwanis Club of Healdsburg

TUESDAY

OCTOBER 4, 1932

THE SENATOR HIMSELF: Wisé in making the laws; otherwise known unto us as Herb.Slater, - Senator Herbert Slater, to be sure, of Santa Rosa town, Sonoma County, and biennially of Sacramento, Cal. He's on his way. Joe Miller "fetches" him, - Chairman Joe, as he'll be known to day. Herb. will tell us about what portions of our State Constitution to let alone; and then again, where he thinks we should amend. And when this old druid of the legislature gets thro' with us, all we'll have to do is mark our sample ballots.

VICTORY: Just as the "Yanks" copped the bunting to day (Sunday)

so did Al.Gobbi win out last week in bringing to us Mr.
Davenport Phelps, who cermonized on the Short Hour Day. You'd think it was next to the Sabbath Day when the speaker spoke his speech. And we all said AMEN. Exception: One Temple Smith. On this subject "Temp" has thoughts of his own. A period of two minutes and two seconds will be set aside for this member to deliver his rejoinder. Give 'em the floor, President Al.

THE HOUSE OF MORGAN: The branch has expanded in Healdsburg, - yea, in our very Kiwanis club.

We have known our only SMILING JOHN;
John of the P.G.E.
Comes now from the north our SUNNY JIM;
Of the firm of the GREAT JOHN D.

Rotarian once; Kiwanian now. Welcome, Jim, We have use for you.

KIWANIS KANDIDATES: The Nominating Committee brings in its findings to day. Is the Bohunkus Party again to bid for power? Is there to be re-submission or repeal of vital questions within our club? Or, will it be a slate - just bent to REGULATE?

THE BUILDER

Published Weekly by the Kiwanis Club of Healdsburg

TUESDAY

OCTOBER 11, 1932

COLUMBUS DAY: It happens to fall on the morrow; but we observe its anniversary to day. Otherwise known as Discovery Day, Chairman Floyd has discovered a most logical speaker in Attorney John Lounibos of Petaluma. This gentleman has already given a good account of himself before our club. We welcome him back.

VISITORS: Happy to have with us last week such class as was represented in the persons of Joe McMinn, Ed. Enzenauer, Merrill Miller, Reuben Baer and Bill Shuhaww. Wonder if the coming of Senator Slater might not have been an inducement. Besides, these gents always seem to be at home with us. The Senator, by the way, brought along his usual fluency, together with expert testimony on the make-up of our November ballot.

DEMITTED: But not for long. Bill Massoni will be back with us again when the presently humiliated, but not to be denied, home-grown luscious grape is crushed - preparatory to the banning of the ban.

ABSENT: Eddie Byrn was gone last week. But somehow the show went on. Nothing short of a miracle. Ed, don't ever scare us again.

ELECTION TO DAY: Have your pencils ready - to scratch the ticket, or accept the slate. Fines there'll be - for election-eering at the polls.

WHAT A PRIZE: And What A Man received it. Given by Joe to Bill. This event has developed into what amounts to a semi-annual classic. And the big boy's heart must have been filled with joy. Such an award doesn't fall to the lot of every man. Significantly serviceably, pre-eminently practical, appropriately apropos, - this gift was some token of esteem. No doubt by this time it has been put to test, fly speck and all. Its outstanding usefulness cannot be denied. Congratulations to Bambino Bill.

THE BUILDER

Published Weekly by the Kiwanis Club of Healdsburg

TUESDAY

OCTOBER 18, 1932

TO REPEAT: Just for emphasis, it is hereby broadcasted in type what Eddie Beeson told us in plain words last meeting about the program for this day, to wit: Himself, chairman; Brutus Hamilton, speaker. Brutus, you know, is the successor to Walt Christie, as head athletic coach at U.C.

A POSSIBLE SPECIALTY: Dr. Sohler, or Russ Stevens, or both, are likely to inquire of Eddie, or Brutus, or both, if these California disciples ever heard of Santa Clara or Washington State.

JOHN LOUNIBOS: This youthful Petaluma attorney won high honors in his speech on Discovery Day. Pretty nice to have so many good speakers, such as John, come to us at their own sacrifice and expense to entertain and enlighten us. And what a hand he did receive.

ATTENDANCE CONTEST: We're in the midst of one of those things right now, and hardly know it. With but two or three absent each meeting why should we shout much about the present contest? Were "The Builder" to stress it much, it would probably insist that the losing side buy no dinner for the winners. And why? Answer: Just to be consistent with past precedents. If you want no free dinner in the Healdsburg Kiwanis club, just be on the winning side of an attendance contest.

WANTED: Contributions to the "columns" of "The Builder". Thus far the entire staff on this weekly bulletin has been centered in one human. As Irving Bacheller would say, "Taint right". Why don't some of you fellers hand in some copy? Anything at all - serious, or ridiculous. More likely to be the latter, we predict. But we want something. Trust deeds, personals (if you don't get too personal), behavior in the club (good or otherwise), - even tho' you stir up a little muss, 'twill help the editor and relieve the "subscribers" from the evils of a single track mind.

THE BUILDER

Published Weekly by the Kiwanis Club of Healdsburg

TUESDAY

OCTOBER 25, 1932

EDWIN D. BERL: To day, - in his "title role", Crystal Gazing, or, ----- Speculating on the Future. Of this gentleman, Chairman Harold B. has this to say: Member of S.F. Stock Exchange. On Wall Street for a number of years. So, he should give our boys a lot of information how "the lambs are sheared". Then again, G.M.G., himself a big paint manufacturer, will also come along., - Garrett M. Goldberg, by name, and brother-in-law of H.B.R.

HEARSAY: Usually not accepted as evidence. But when several of ----- our close observers and pretentious keen critics testify that Brutus Hamilton was very good in his athletic talk last week, then, that settles it. Your renegade reporter just can't report on this meeting. The best he could do was to cough himself over to Legion Hall with those election ballots, then sneeze his way right home again.

NEW OFFICERS: Well, the nominating committee did get by with its ----- candidates, after all. Wonder if the election of Republican Roy as Kiwanis president means another G.O.P. landslide on November 8th. Right here Fred Cairns pipes in and says: Give unto Kiwanis what belongs to us; but to the Democrats, EVERYTHING ELSE.
Two weeks from to day we'll all have our say. Whichever way the pendulum swings, Roy, yours is already an accomplished victory. You made a clean fight. Narry a word against your opponent. Best wishes for a successful administration.

LEST WE FORGET: At least some brief reports are due from our men ----- who attended the Dist. convention. Of course we can not expect the whole story from youngsters like Floyd and H.K. who despise not the links, the gridiron, the operas, roundups, etc. But we will be pleased to know what they know about that Kiwanis show.