Superman - Superman - Superman - Who is he ???

President Ed promised to tell us who he is with the help of Secretary Ray - Come on fellows, let's find out who he is - Can you guess???

Last week's program was chaired by a fine gentleman by the name of Ken Gonsalves. He had as his guest Mr. Harry Sullivan, who is the instructor of the Healdsburg Distributive Education Program. Also, Sandra Handley, Work Experience Coordinator for Sonoma County Regional Occupational Programs was also along to share with us this Work Experience Program. We want to thank Ken for such an outstanding program.

It was good of Ed Matteoli to stand in for Art McCaffery and have a Key Club member visit with us. Ed, you should collect the fine from Art - then match it and give it to our Treasurer. Good thought. Garry Moore was introduced by Ken Gonsalves as his guest today.

Don't forget the American Field Service. Give where it counts the most - helping youth help themselves - what an investment! A Christmas card to all. No fuss; no muss; an easy way to say Merry Christmas and mean what you say - see Elmer Christensen with your check today.

Where was Bill Hayes? He had a birthday and was not present for our Happy Birthday song - But Ken Hampton was a year older so he was honored by a beautiful chorus, all out of tune, singing, "Happy Birthday." Congratulations, Ken.

The program today sounds most interesting. Mr. Norman Mact will present the Keough Program - who's the Chairman? Ask Roger Christenson; he knows - or does he - come and find out who he picks to chair this program.

Pins For Sale - See Ray Stark - $fine$ if you do not wear one.

"Speeches should be like a woman's skirt - just long enough to cover the subject, and short enough to create interest."

THE BUILDER

NOVEMBER 26, 1974

President Ed started the meeting without his gavel - Guess who had it - that's right; his associate - Ken Hampton - It should be worth a five dollar fine. Who collects???

It looks like some fellows are on the ball - We had a few guests in our midst - Walter Wright introduced Tom Roscoe; Bud Christensen had his son Bill there; and Ed Storey said that The Salvation Army Commissioner sent Major Graham to check up on him - However, it was nice to have all of these men visit our club. Let's keep up the good work.

Jim Silveira had to pay a dollar for his badge - Say, fellows, make sure you wear your badges and pins - If not - FINE - FINE - FINE - Ray Stark has more pins to sell.

Last week's program was chaired by a fine gentleman by the name of Fran Branern. His guest was Msgr. John O'Hare who gave a wonderful talk on Thanksgiving. He had a fine vocal group from St. John's 6th grade, under the direction of Sister Mary. Well done!!

The Board of Director's meeting will be held December 10th at 7:30 P.M. at Ed Langhart's home - all members be present.

Happy Birthday was sung to Lee Sayre who said he was 48 years old. Lee is that young in heart, but if the truth was known, I think it would be the other way around.

The following will be the Bulletin Editor for the month so designated: December - Ed Storey; January - Earl Osborn; February - Waldo Iversen; March - Bud Christensen. Thanks, fellows!!

Don't forget your check for American Field Service. An easy way to say "Merry Christmas". See Bud Christensen today.

Good to see that Art McCaffrey had a Key Clubber with him today, Mr. Tom Hollis.

Round Tables - December 24th and December 31st.

"Did you hear about the father who sent his son to college and spent thousands of dollars only to get a quarterback?"
