Fellow Kiwanians:

On this day any member who is absent should draw about two fines for the following reasons:

1st. Bill Hill will be Chairman.

2nd. Mr. Ernest Finley of Santa Rosa is spokesman.

3d. The theme will be The Redwood Empire.

All of which will make for a fine program.

The election was a landslide for Jim Bowen and his party candidates.

Everybody happy that you are IT, Jim.
We know that you will maintain the gold standard so well protected by President Harold.

Here goes for another banner year.

Believe it or not:
The noisy boys did behave last Tuesday.
That talk on "Wild Life" seemed to tame 'em.

Dues:

Last month of last quarter. Just a reminder.
Bill Bray says it's going to rain.
Find shelter at the Legion Hall this Tuesday.

Ed. Quinn,
Secretary.

12 - 10 - 29

Fellow Kiwanian:

The above figures mean to-day, Tuesday.

Well, we should be more sold than ever on The Redwood Empire since that enlightening talk by M. Finley last week.

Our Chairmen are putting on right smart entertainments these days.

Not to be outplayed at this time, our good old Hundred per Cent Reliable, Past Lieut. Governor, Popular Program Producer, George Kiwanis Larrie, has scored a touchdown in bringing to us the Santa Rosa club.

These boys are sure to kick a goal and give us a thrill for our attendance.

George believes in mixing and in being mixed. Hence, this inter-club get-together to-day. He will blow the whistle. Santa Rosa will kick off for a successful score.

Eddie Beeson will be field judge, Frank Sohler, referee.

The seats should be sold out.

Ed. Quinn,
Secretary.

Fellow Kiwanian:

It wont be long now till we'll be "Singing in the Rain!"
For on this day, Tuesday, we meet again.

Santa Rosa made good, very good, at Legion Hall last week, - this from information and belief; for your scribble
was in the Southland at the time.

It was dry (overhead) in Tiajuana while it poured in Healdsburg.

But who do you think is going to be our Chairman to-day? None other than the General Motors magnate- of Geyserville--Everett Lampson by name.

Everett has captured alive some big game by snaring in Mr. N.A. Becker, of the Columbia Steel Works of Pittsburg, who will tell us about our own State of California.

Another alluring inducement. There will be a rare opportunity to set yourself back (financially) by as much as will clear your slate of '29 dues. Bring your fountain pen.

Once again. That coming contest feed. It wont be long now.
Bill Rumbold and his cohorts are just on the verge of admitting defeat. Bill's voltage was low yesterday. He fears that one wandering member may be causing his downfall by failing to make up absences.

Just too bad, Bill, if it's true. And costly, too.
This is all for the present.

Your Secretary,

Ed. Quinn.

Fellow Kiwanian:

Christmas.

Surely a time for special devotion.
Levity of the light order gives way to-day to deeper meditation, to loftier thought.

This Friday noon we assemble to give expression commemorative of a great event.

Accordingly, Charlie Comstock presents a program calculated to harmonize with the significance of this Xmas. period.

Instrumental selections, sacred songs, yuletide stories, -these, with an atmosphere of the holiday season should bring together every last Kiwanian of, this Healdsburg Club.

Bill Gray will be missed on this, and many another occasion.

Crafty, and graceful of poise,
Natural-born center, of noise;
But a doer of things substantial, -
Bill, we are going to miss you.

Balance up the old year with a few scattering dues.

This is the day of reckoning.

Who must admit defeat, Bill, or Russ?

Who is stung for the feed?

In either case, a good time will be had by all.

Merry Christmas.

Ed Quinn,

Secretary.

Fellow Kiwanian:

Exit '29. Enter 1930

The old regiment marches out. For the moment a new firing line marks time, with guns aimed at even a higher target than ever before.

Harold has proved to be one of our finest Commanders. Jim, to outgeneral him will be to retire with distinction one year hence.

Kiwanis presupposes real service.

In the year, just at our door, shall we incline only to a "good fellows get together", or are we to strive for some concrete, outstanding achievement?

All, including non-commissioned officers, must answer. Exercises of a dignified order, reverent, and apropos of the occasion, were those of last Christmas week.

Charlie Comstock caught the spirit of the day, and put on a program with credit and renown.

Of the several numbers of merit, none was more touching, impressive, and reminiscent of twenty centuries ago than that classic by our own Julius Myron Alexander, and well read by Irving Rhoades.

Julius, that the New Year may bless you with a full restoration to health is our fervent wish.

On this Tuesday Frank Schler will perform as last Chairman for the outgoing year. Frank has his own ideas of what should be stressed at this time.

And what shall I say of attendance?

Let your conscience and your duty be your guide.

Happy New Year from

Your Secretary,

Ed. Quinn.
