TODAY'S PROGRAM

An update on the Sonoma County Sheriff's Department will be given by Pat Moffitt, who is in charge of the Canine Corps.

FUTURE PROGRAMS AND CALENDAR

- December 8: Annual Christmas Party.
- December 15: Paddy O'Doherty will speak and show slides of his experience of exploring a shipwrecked Spanish galleon off the coast of his native Ireland.
- December 22: Chief Taylor will take us on a tour of the new fire station. Lunch will be served.
- December 29: No meeting. Prepare next year's resolutions during this 1½ hour.
- January 5: Neil Smart, Parks & Recreation Director, will discuss the Villa restoration project and more.
- January 12: We will have a program on the Luther Burbank Gardens.
- January 26: Mr. Robert Arguello, President of S.R.J.C., will speak on the state of the college.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Clarence Ruonavaara reminded us that the deadline for the newspaper Christmas card for the America Field Service is December 8th. Fred Haley took over for Tom Roscoe to solicit help with the bell ringing for the Salvation Army at Safeway. There's still some time in November and especially December. Come and have fun. Pete Foppiano announced the Senior Dinner on Sunday, December 6th. Help is needed in all capacities for both the 3:00 and 5:00 servings. This is a great cause and a wonderful way to help honor our seniors! Vince announced the Christmas party for December 8th. There will be a band, no host happy hour at 6:00, dinner at 7:00. The price has not been settled, but it's bound to be an offer you can't refuse! President Kurt announced that the '93 Special Olympics actually begins in November 1992 with powerlifting, gymnastics and basketball competitions. President Kurt also announced the next board meeting on Wednesday and that the next 2 board meetings will be presided over by Ted Etheredge.

GUESTS: Lee Gunnerson with Phil Rice (filling out application form). Keven Alexander with Glenn Keith. Chuck Conrad with Gary Solem. Sergay Bit-Atanus with either Win Engvall or Wayne Carr with some confusion over which!

Neil Iverson introduced Rich Thomas, student of the month, and his mother Barbara. Rich is leaning towards Cal Poly in San Luis Obispo with a 4.00 GPA, and wants to major in materials engineering. He has 4 years of basketball, football and bseball under his belt at HHS. Great luck for the future, Rich.

LAST WEEK'S MEETING: Barclay was reinstated to our membership as a senior member. He was formerly with Kiwanis for 8 years, and wants to get involved with the Key Club. Welcome. No birthdays this week! Happy/Sad $$: President Kurt, Win and Bob Maize sad to lose to Stanford; Rich Iverson happy to be a new grandpa; Vince announced Rich Passalacqua also having a new addition but he wouldn't pay any big money; Jim Silveira happy to have played 100 holes in a day; Clarence Ruonavaara happy to have met up with 19 of his college buddies from Al-Co-Hall; Rick Alves happy to be 2 grandpas!; Don Reukema sad because after the fine box was stolen from Al, it was dropped by Tom Rackerby and thus found before a ransom price could be named that Vince would have to pay. FINES: Vince $1 for trying to steal the gavel and also for doctoring the attendance slips; Bob Engvall $.50 for thinking it was December 24th; Joe Coppa, Ben Collins & Ted Etheredge each donated $1 in advance because they missed our luncheon in lieu of going to a luncheon celebrating the 217th birthday of the Marine Corps; Ted Curtis gave $1 on a sad note because all this was announced 2 weeks late; and Bruno gave $1 out of despair for having to remind President Kurt to honor the ladies serving us. THOUGHT FOR THE DAY: From Garrett Rosenberg who quoted football's Mike Ditker: "You're never a loser until you quit trying". Is it feasible for the club to set aside a fund for our music leader, Carl Elze, to get him a new wand? I'm sure it would increase the quality of our singing! Bob Santucci introduced Reverend Marvin Bowers who gave us a humorous and warm program. He began by having us reflect on the good, and not so good, things that have happened to us over the past year, and end with a Thank You. He advised us to pray with intention and consciousness - NOT while you're in bed! And what do we focus on? The treasures in our lives or the garbage floating around? Reverend Bowers left us with the thought, "Do you really want what you deserve??"

HAPPY THANKSGIVING TO US ALL!!

WEEKLY BULLETIN

TODAY'S PROGRAM: our meeting today will be lunch and a grand tour of our new Firehouse. Don't miss this one!

FUTURE CALENDAR

- December 29 - No meeting - Keep on those resolutions.
- January 5 - Neil Smart, from Parks & Recreation, will discuss the restoration project at the Villa, and more.
- February 4 - Lieutenant Governor Richard Graham will update us on the grand scheme of Kiwanis.
- February 9 - Valentine's program, TBA.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Christmas party was a great success. Side Note: An umbrella was found, so if you're missing yours, check here. President Kurt informed us that for last month our club came in #99 out of 110, and we are #14 out of 15 in Division 32, the 2nd highest ranking. What a club! Ken Gonsalves is reportedly doing better, but still has a long way to go. A card was passed around for Lew Sbrana, who experience a heart attack. Get well, fellows.

Last Week's Meeting

Guests: Bruno introduced Art Weaver and Cal Carpenter. Gary Solem introduced Hunt Conrad. President Kurt introduced 6 members of the Redwood Empire Kiwanis Club, but donated $2 for calling them Santa Rosa Kiwanis! Bob Maize introduced his son, Robert.

There was no thought for the day, but President Kurt announced his (expensive) displeasure that the bell was stolen before the meeting! Rich Lehrman was fined $1 for asking how we know when Kurt's in a bad mood. Do we know now?

Lee Gunnerson was inducted into our club. Welcome Lee. Boxes of candy were handed out to all the cooks, by Vince. $19 was won by Ted Etheredge in the lotto! Paul Yeomans celebrated his birthday with a very rousing, one-of-a-kind song. Bet you next time he orders the special!

Ed Collins and Phil Rice were very disappointed when no replacements showed up for their stint with the Salvation Army bell ringing. Don Reukema & Win Engvall donated $1 and $5 respectively to help ease the disappointment. Fred Besio, Fran Branern, Jim Silveira and Paul Yeomans were fined $1 for failing to sign Al Rochester's apron. Ernie Biasotti was sad that he forgot to introduce Ray Muzzini, someone was happy that we helped raise over $5,000 for Home Hospice, and Clarence Ruonavaara was happy that over $1,000 was collected for AFS.

A fascinating program was given by Paddy O'Doherty about the history of the Spanish Armada, and his role in tracking down the 4th largest ship in the fleet and helping to salvage what was left of it, off the coast of Northern/Southern Ireland depending on who you ask for directions. Thank you, Paddy. Oh, and Vince, do you think there's any sunken ships in Oklahoma??

By the end of the meeting, the bell was still missing!
