We are appreciative of the Christmas message given us last week by Rev. Floyd Barnett. Santa Claus Campbell showed considerable experience and talent as he dispensed the gifts with gusto.

Waldo Iverson, Inter Club chairman for the year, wound up with an Inter-club at Santa Rosa with a combined meeting of the Santa Rosa and S R Suburban. Eight local Kiwanians attended. Take a bow, Waldo, for a job well done.

P. G. & E. Miller will provide the program this week and he promises to tangle with the atom. Remember we meet at Luigi's at noon.

LOOK TO THE FUTURE

Thursday, January 3 - Last sign-up date for Installation Dinner. Be sure and get yours reserved. Prime rib dinner $2 for wives and guests.

Saturday, January 5 - Ft. Bragg Kiwanis installation and ladies night. 7:00

Tuesday, January 8 - Installation dinner, 7:00. Plan to be there.

Tuesday, January 8 - 12:00 - 12:30 - Round Table. St. Paul's Hall

The installation was great. Tom is wearing the past president's pin, Bud has the prexy's hardware, VP Ernie is standing tall behind our president, Bernie Beller has the money bags, and Fran Branern has a re-fill for his pen in preparation for another year's run as secretary .. ..and all is right with Kiwanis.

Lt. Governor Walter Eggen was lavish in his praise of the Healdsburg club. He praised the club for being the leader down through the years and for having fathered at least five clubs.

In Sacramento Governor Pat has given "the word" to the legislature, in Washington, DC President JFK has delivered his salvo to Congress, so today our own President Bud will flash the blueprints for 1963.

V P Ernie Biasotti needs volunteers for program chairmen starting February 19th. Give him your dates today.

Today is a good time to bring your check for the next quarter's dues. It will save a lot of time and new 5-cent stamps.

SOME DATES TO RESERVE

Feb. 12 - Visit of Lt. Governor. Walter Wright, program chairman

March 4 - International President's visit

May 27 - District Governor's visit in SR

Last week's film geared to "Responsibility -the key to Freedom" should have given us plenty of food for contemplation and meditation. President Bud also reminded us that the real motivating power in the club lies in the board of directors and that general and specific objectives for the club would be discussed at the next meeting of the board of directors. Our new president concluded his objectives of the year discussion by pointing out the importance of a membership who can and does contribute.

Louie Schwab has the program for today. He has engaged Frank Corrick, Santa Rosa, who has many friends here. Mr. Corrick is a retired private investigator for insurance companies and will bring a documentary with him.

Insurance Fraud

Entries for the state bowling tournament to be held in Stocton on June 8th has Chairman Ken Gonsalves whistling an optimistic note or two. Fifteen pin dusters have signed up to man the three teams which will enter. The entries should have a good look-see at the doubles and shingles sheckels too!
