

THE HEALDSBURG KIWANIS CLUB
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY

3 -- 4 -- 30

Fellow Kiwanian:

LAST WEEK:

~~-----~~ First hand information came to us through Mr. Moe Goldman on the great crash of Wall Street. Also, as relayed by this speaker, we heard Private Pete in his analysis of the World War. A most instructive program.

TED-KELLOGG:

~~-----~~ To day this junior member will be our Chairman. Ted fails to answer the phone. But we can rest assured that he has something up his cuff, for Ted is a reliable boy. Maybe he wants to keep it in the dark, and then surprise us.

THE ROUGHNECKS:

~~-----~~ This title may not deal out full justice to the boys at the vest table. They furnish all necessary noise, fill in every gap, punctuate the program, and pay their fines.

HOWEVER:

~~-----~~ There are times when a little silence is golden. It might be well to select those times, boys; supply the desired silence (in spots), preserve the life of the song, and save a little of your hard earned cash.

THE CLUB:

~~-----~~ It is continuing to function with credit. Attendance stands between the marks of E minus and B plus. In other words pretty fair. Quarterly dues for '20 are all in, and those for '30 are on the way. Construction is our slogan. We understand that building activities are to be stepped up a bit in the future.

FEBRUARY 25:

~~-----~~ Inter-Club meeting at Sonoma. Keep open this date. A evening event. Let's make it worth while.

Secretary.

Fellow Kiwanians:

Always bear in mind that the above numerals mean to-day, round about high noon.

THE BRIDGE AT GOLDEN GATE :

Last week Mr. Frank Doyle built the structure for us from top to bottom. Ted Kellogg succeeded in importing this bridge building booster from the County Seat. For all of which we were most thankful, indeed.

One meeting, however, proved to be too short for such a long span. Time is the essence in Kiwanis. Mr. Chairman, don't hesitate to watch your watch.

THIS DAY:

We feature Floyd Darby as mainspring of what shall follow. And we are going to follow, too, with attentive ears. For the speaker is to be no other than:

WILBUR HALL:

Man of letters, novelist, of Saturday Post fame etc. This speaker is certain to leave his impress upon us.

Floyd has done some highpowering by letter and by wire to get his man. And the man is "got". While this letter was underway, the good news came. So we scratch off something else, happy to herald this.

MUNICIPAL PLAY*

GROUND:

Spring is coming. A fine time to start proceedings. Are the committees on the job? We hope so. Planting of flowers, shrubs, hedges, if any, should now be under way. Next week we will know something about conducting a contest on attractive gardens. Our Club should foster beautifying Healdsburg this season.

OUR NEW DRESS:

Today we came out in our new blue gown, color of the Healdsburg skies. Miss Kiwanis of Healdsburg, Cal. hopes that you all will find her looking better. This light blue stationery is supposed to drive away the blues.

ATTENDANCE:

Two meetings good last month. Two meetings not so good. When you have played hookey, make up at Santa Rosa, or elsewhere, and bring to us the attendance vouchers, that we may CHECK - AND DOUBLE CHECK,
With apologies to Amos and Andy.

Secretary.

FELLOW KIWANIAN: Did we ever have a better meeting than that of Tuesday last? If so, when, where, -an' how? Roughnecks and highbrows alike were on their toes.

At last we are convinced of the close analogy between farming and literature. Wilbur Hall is the only man who could put that over. The fine points in stock raising and the danger of barb wire were strikingly expounded.

Serious now. The name of Abraham Lincoln called for deeper thought. It was a warning word when the speaker exclaimed, "Time to take stock while possible dissention is in the making". And the spirit of "Honest Abe" was called back to the rescue.

G. LANSING HURD: From the Santa Rosa Chamber of Commerce comes this man to day. While our own C.C. body is somewhat in eclipse, this champion civic chauffer may be able to guide us from the present detour back onto the main highway of life and action.

Lin Gilbert is Chairman to day. Don't razz Silent Lin too much, -only just enough, when he takes the floor.

THIS TUESDAY: Likely to be clear and sunny. Better come out and see your shadow. Furthermore, you will want to hear Lansing Hurd.

2 -25 - 30

FELLOW KIWANIAN : WANTED - a tip on who is to talk to day.
----- Perhaps he may prove to be the biggest gun of the season. Perhaps we may appreciate him the more because of the surprise. Anyhow, if anyone is on the inside, it is not the Secretary. But he isn't quite "regusted" yet.

ALLEN GOBBI?

CHAIRMAN. "As we go to press" at this late hour not even
----- an echo comes to our S.O.S. calls. But don't charge it all to Al. He has been waiting on his scoutour Coroner and Public Administrator. Out of town, and away from wire communications, Fred seems to be a fugitive from service
Be on hand, Fred, with your alibi and purse, principally the latter.

ONCE AGAIN,
THE BRIDGE:

----- Last Tuesday Lansing Hurd found solid anchorages, and other strong arguments in favor of the proposed structure at Golden Gate. The mere details of voting the bonds and stretching across the span are about all that remain to be accomplished. It was a good talk.

DO IT WITH FLOWERS:

----- Committee members are already throwing bouquets at each other because of their determination to make of Healdsburg the "Flower City". And the movement is going to succeed, too. But Kiwanians must set a good example. It is an objective of great merit; and easy of accomplishment.

ELMER SANBORN:

----- This is our new member. The Club is quite in luck. We can never have too much talent. And Elmer has it in great big hunks. His musical abilities are just what we have sorely needed. Elmer, the Club has been incomplete without you. THRICE WELCOME.

Secretary.
