THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM -

All arrangements for this week's program has been made by the Agriculture and Conservation Committee which has a long history of preparing interesting programs for us. The program will be under the direction of Ted Kellogg, chairman.

NEXT WEEK'S PROGRAM -

Valentine's Day program will be arranged by Dr. Don and will draw on the talent of the Redwood Heart Association membership.

Along the K T-R-A-I-L: Not only does Bill K. have a talent for selling sleek looking autos, but another talent has been uncovered - we saw him judging a beauty contest the other night! Since we Kiwanians are interested in services, it should be mentioned that Dunc has added a section to his February Fair called "Talent Unlimited" at which those who are handicapped can come and display in a special section the handicraft and artistry they have made. This section will include "artistry in action" by a blind weaver Hurry up and pay your taxes, so you can invest the money you don't have left - Bud C is bringing us a program on investments on the 28th

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

We have been living on the heritage of liberty bequeathed us by our forefathers. We have ignored the truth that if we wish to enjoy the freedoms of self-government, we must be willing to participate in governing ourselves.

(Ben Dean, president, 1944-45)

Get out your Old Tin Lizzie Better hurry and get busy
Forget all your sorrows and cares;
In the fields of clover, look the old town over
At the next big Citrus Fair.

We'll get our old twin Packard,
And make a lot of racket;
We'll be there rooting without fail;
A bunch of Healdsburg boosters
We'll crow aloud like roosters
When the gang hits Cloverdale.

! ! ! !

Words by Herman Boos

Healdsburg Kiwanis Club

"If you've got as much zip as they had 42 years ago, we'll see you at the fair," says Dunc.

whose topic will be, "Early Signs of Heart Disease The

THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM -

This is Brotherhood Week and the program has been tailored accordingly. The speaker will be Harvey Goldstein, spiritual leader of Beth Hami, Jewish synagogue in Santa Rosa. He will be speaking on the topic of brotherhood and religion. The program was arranged by Rev. Paul, Support of Churches committee. Another member of the committee, Gunnar Johnson will be the Kiwanian-of-the-Day.

Along the K T-R-A-I-L: . . . Remember that we observe the birth of the father of our country tomorrow. . . . Remember, too, that February is a short month so make sure all attendance is up to date. Our recent celebration of Boy Scout Week reminds us: Take one container, any size, into the container put:

- Lots of love
- Plenty of energy
- Large helping of patience
- King-size sense of humor
- Two extra hands and a
- Den Mother's uniform.

No need to mix -her den will keep her stirred up. Garner with hammer, nails, bandages, glue, scissors, and plastic bottles. Serves eight boys well.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

"If we do not now devise some greater and more equitable system, Armageddon will be at our door. The problem basically is theological and involves a spiritual recrudescence and improvement of human character. . . It must be of the spirit if we are to save the flesh."

General Douglas MacArthur

THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM -

Bud Christensen will be the Kiwanian-of-the-Day and will bring some information on how to invest the refunds we don't get on our income tax, and some other pertinent information on investments.

NEXT WEEK'S PROGRAM -

Frank Wilson has been "eyeing" this program for our edification for quite some time, so it promises to be, shall we say, a real "eye opener!"

ATTENDANCE CONGRATULATIONS

For 1966 perfect attendance -
President Ken Gonzalves
Homer Hoyt

ALONG THE K T-R-A-I-L: When it comes to dishing up the victuals - none excell the Kiwanis - as evidenced by the serving at the basketball dinner Saturday night! Homer H's Community Congress was such a success Saturday that he should be the next candidate for Congress. Our Key Club meets tonight (Feb. 28th) in Room 19 - plan to visit with them! Get ready for the Governor's visit on March 9th at Los Robles at 12 noon.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

Let us show the world we not only excel in all productive and economic efforts, but that it is the spiritual strength in developing character that is the real foundation of our greatness.

(Jay N. Emerson, president, 1946-47)
