Last Week's Meeting: Guest of the day was Mike Symons, a Healdsburg attorney who was guest of Ted Etheredge. Don't forget to help set up tables for the Science Fair March 21st at 10:00 a.m. The Pancake Breakfast is right around the corner. Don't forget to sell your tickets, or you will buy them yourself. Rich Iverson is allowing for changes on the roster. Make sure you are listed correctly. Neil Iversen was recently awarded the distinguished Kiwanian of the Year Award. Mike Mojica and Mark McCoppin (better known as the M&M's) were both late last week with no excuses.

Happy & Sad Dollars: Bob Meyers sad about his hearing impairment; Art McCaffery happy for Clarence's induction into the Healdsburg Athletic Hall of Fame and the role played by Frances Passalacqua and Earl Osborn. They were all magnificent. Ken Turnbow was happy to be back from a cruise through the Panama Canal. John was sad for the Tarheels; Bob Taylor didn't like Vince's singing; Dorsey is on his way to Reno; Kurt was sorry about missing the Hall of Fame dinner and the absence of his name on the plaque and happy for American Legion's 75th birthday (all this for $1?)

Birthday Guys: Bob Malone and Bob Young celebrated. Mr. Young got two songs for $10 - a bad precedent for sure.

New Member: Marc Rumani, the New Manager of Safeway, was inducted last week. Marc is married, has a nine year old son, enjoys gardening with his parrots and is a member of the Italian-American Club. In spite of this we still brought him into the club. He was sponsored by Dorsey.

This and That: The Lottery was won for the first time by Rich Lehrmann who will be in Taiwan eating snakes and dogs and spending his $16 winnings as you read this. Chuck Reichel sold his Pinto for $500. Garry Rosenberg admits to watching lady wrestlers on T.V. Bob Taylor is building a Fire Truck for the City. Now is the time to increase your Fire Insurance. Vince is taking up Ostrich Farming in an effort to make new friends.

Last Week's Program: Renee Keefe from the Farmers Market entertained us with stories from the market. This is a wonderful part of our town and if you haven't visited recently you might want to this spring.

Next Week: Watch for our special guest bulletin writer. Make sure you sign up for extra copies as this could be a collector's item.
