

THE BUILDER

MARCH 5, 1974

Fred Haley has arranged to have Sy Berkowitz who heads the program for "Big Brothers of Sonoma County," speak on this worthwhile program. This is one of the organizations receiving financing through "The United Way."

In our program last week, Don Anderson explained why the C.A.B. censored seven airlines last April for overcharging. He mentioned the three kinds of fares used by airlines and how one can save money through proper planning by a travel agent. A very informative program that was well presented.

The date for the dinner for the high school basketball and wrestling teams has been changed to March 26th.

Our congratulations to scoutmaster Neil Iversen and his assistant Leonard Swinney for the fine scout exhibit that has been in the store formerly occupied by the William Ellis pharmacy on Center Street during the past month. February is the Anniversary month for scouting.

The Kiwanis International Convention will be held in Denver in June, 1974. It was just 50 years ago at the Kiwanis International Convention held in Denver that the "Objects of Kiwanis" were adopted. These underlying principles, called objects, are just as fresh and meaningful today as they were a half century ago. Just to refresh our memories on the Objects of Kiwanis, following are some of them:

1. To give primacy to the human and spiritual rather than the material values of life.
5. To provide, through Kiwanis clubs, a practical means to form enduring friendships, to render altruistic service and to build better communities.
3. To promote the adoption and the application of higher social, business and professional standards.
6. To cooperate in creating and maintaining that sound public opinion and high idealism that makes possible the increase of righteousness, justice, patriotism and good will.

Our guests last week were: Daryl DeVries, publisher of the Healdsburg Tribune; Amir Kasmaie, student from Iran; Susan Frigault, Key Club Sweetheart; Tom Hollis, Tom Grant and Tom Wagner from Key Club.

THE BUILDER

Today's program Chairman is Jim Silveira. He plans to bring a speaker from one of the two local colleges to speak upon a topic not yet released. Maybe even a "streaker", so get a front seat.

Last week, Fred Haley brought Bert Maynard and "Cy" Berkowitz to talk about Big Brothers of Sonoma County. This very fine organization's only major source of funds is a $3900 allotment from the United Crusade, but it already serves 50 fatherless boys in the county with predominately volunteer help. There are 4000 fatherless boys in the county, some of whom are of course near us. It needs more help. Look at the brochure you should have taken with you and see if there is anything you can do.

Guests last week were Tom Grant, Key Club President, Marvin Hollingsworth and Byron Gibbs. It was especially nice to see By, former Healdsburg Kiwanis President and Lt. Governor when our district extended from Benicia to Eureka.

Kudos went to Frank Wilson and Bob Young upon their birthdays and to Hank Spomer upon the success of his grand-daughter, now holder of two world's records in swimming.

DATES TO REMEMBER:

March 16 - Geyserville's Maggie and Jiggs Dinner.

May 18 - OUR one and only major fund raising and fun event, the Healdsburg Kiwanis Pancake Breakfast.

March 19 - Bill Kassin

THE BUILDER

March 19, 1974

Bill Kassin will take a few minutes off from his busy day, as a car salesman, to be program chairman, today. He will bring "bud" Davis as speaker. Mr. Davis is from the Siskiyou Flying Service, the company which contracts to provide the big aerial tankers used in fighting fires. "Siskiyou" not only provides the tankers used in the North Coast but is involved all over the United States and in foreign countries in fire fighting.

Last week our six visitors were all from Geyserville Kiwanis. President Ron Johnson brought with him, Pat Patterson, John Soule, Charlie Gardner, Harry Bosworth and Frank Cinalli to promote Saturday's Corn Beef and Cabbage Feed, as well as for an Inter-club.

Speaker of the day was "Reg" Elgin, a former Healdsburg young man, now Student Placement and Financial Aids Officer at Santa Rosa Junior College. Reg has been director of the California Inter Tribal Council and had a White House appointment as one of the negotiators working upon the Wounded Knee problem. While now working full time at the Junior College, Reg is still vitally interested in the problems of Native Americans who form our countries most deprived ethnic group. There are about 700,000 Indians in the United States, one third of whom live in California. Statistically, Native Americans have greater poverty, more illness, less education, more alcoholism, and a shorter life span than any other minority in the United States. Those conditions will improve when we forget our stereo-typed ideas of Indians and learn to live together as people who respect each other. Reg gave us something to think about when he mentioned the idea of a Kiwanis Scholarship to be given to a needy student attending Santa Rosa Junior College.

Hank Spomer presented to Byron Gibbs, in absentia, a Certificate of Appreciation for his services for eight years as a member of the Sonoma County Civil Service Commission and announced that Bud Christensen will now represent this area on that commission.

President Fran announced that the nominating committee will consist of Gerry Miller, Walt Wright, Waldo Iversen and Ken Gonsalves. Time passes---it seems that we just had the installation of this year's officers a night or two ago.

Some signed up for the Basketball Dinner work crew on March 26th. There is still room for more help.

"WE BUILD!"

THE BUILDER

MARCH 26, 1974

WRESTLING & BASKETBALL DINNER helpers needed tonite!

HAPPY BIRTHDAY KIDDOO'S to Ed Burke and Art McCaffrey.

Have you a spare moment to be an aide to set up tables; be a waiter; to take down and clear tables/chairs? The event is tonite at St. John's Parrish Hall. See Prexy Fran Branern if you can offer your services.

Not only do Kiwanians "build", they "serve" too.

PROGRAM CHAIRMAN INDEX:

- March 26 - Ed Matteoli.
- April 2 - Tom Conklin.
- " 9 - Lt. Gov. Max Gott.
- " 16 - Ed Langhart.

BALONEY STONE? or is it BLARNEY STONE? Anyhoo, Msgr. O'Hair (less), gave an interpretation to Bill (Chev) Kassin that "erin-go-braugh" means that all Irish buy Fords. Even my Mustang 'whinnied' at that one.

PANCAKE BREAKFAST coming May 18th. Let's flip to it!

GUESTS ROUNDTABLE: Duke Le Moss of S.R. Suburban Club; Key Clubbers, Tom Wagner, Kelley Bennett, Tom Hollis.

LAST WEEK'S PROGRAM was chaired by Bill Kassin whose flying topical speaker was Bud Davis of the Siskiyou Flying Serv.

Bud's company services 23 counties and 10 national forests. He has bases from Hollister to S.R. - S.R. to Ukiah - Ukiah to Fortuna - Fortuna to ... then I got lost in the strata.

Several chemicals used in water were a deterrent to ground growth. (Bud's planes are used to fight fires.) Now they use a type of fertilizer with water that is beneficial to plant life.

His outfit operates in the Western States, Tennessee, Chile, Etc. Most of which is all on contract.

So the next time you see a fire in the hills yonder and look up to find a plane releasing a cloud of something...you can bet it's Bud's plane releasing water.

Bud said, "We are not a fire extinguisher. We are a fire retardent."

Ted Kellogg will be next week's editor. If you got a nose for news, see Ted.

Editor of the week,

Ray Stark
