MEETING OF MARCH 7, 1978

NOTA BENE:

THERE WILL BE NO DETAILED BULLETIN OF THIS MEETING UNTIL SUCH TIME AS THE DASTARD WHO STOLE YOUR CORRESPONDENT'S NOTEBOOK FROM THE INSIDE POCKET OF THE AFOREMENTIONED'S JACKET, WHILST SAME WAS HANGING IN ST. JOHN'S HALL KITCHEN DURING THE "SPORTS BANQUET" OF THE SAME DATE: IS BACK IN THE HANDS OF ITS RIGHTFUL OWNER.

UPON RETURN OF SAID NOTEBOOK (WITH NO QUESTIONS ASKED) THE DETAILS OF THIS MEETING WILL BE CONSOLIDATED WITH THOSE OF THE MEETING IMMEDIATELY FOLLOWING THE AFOREMENTIONED RETRIEVAL.

HOWEVER:

Some notes from memory;

There were no Key Club members in attendance. How come?

Several fines were levied as Elwin Jackson was noted shuttling about collecting same.

A couple of guests were introduced, but the names of the introduced and introducer are in the missing notebook.

A most worthy gentlemen, whose name is in the missing notebook too, and who is running for political office, addressed our attention to his ideas on how Sonoma County living could be improved; they made sense.

Q.E.D.

N.B. All those who worked on the Sports Banquet are to be commended; it went off like clock-work and the remarks of the officials were naught but favorable.

NOTES RE MEETING OF 3/7/78:

The lost note-book still hasn't been found, but co-operating members have informed the Honorable Bulletin Editor that 1 Key Clubber did attend the meeting of above noted date. His name was (and still is) Pasquale Valenti. Said co-operating members tried to convince your Editor that he is of the Jewish faith, but this seems most unlikely, and only goes to show the kind of co-operation an editor gets from co-operating members.

The speaker, by the way, was a Mr. Bruce Campbell (hoot-MON!), and Woody Frampton had, as his guest, Tony D'Agosta.

ADIOS PRESIDENT JACK:

ALL HAIL PRESIDENT FRED!

Meeting of 3/14/78;

President Jack announced that, due to new business commitments demanding his time in Stockton (STOCKTON!?) on Tuesdays he was relinquishing his Presidential authority, and turning same over to Fred Haley, our 1st Vice President/ This came as a bit of a shock, but we all wish ex-President Jack the best of luck in his new endeavor.

We had as guests Kurt Hahn, Esq., of the City of Healdsburg and a Bob Young, Esq. (not to be confused with the Bob Young, the big Alexander Valley rancher). We welcomed both. Jerry Hodges paid us a visit; we were wondering what happened to him. While all this was going on, Tony D'Agosta, of the 1st Title Co., was sworn in as a new member.

We will display, with pride, the new decal we received for our banner, recognizing our 100% participation in the annual Anniversary Contribution.

Bob Malone had the misfortune of having his birthday fall on this day, and so parted with $5.00. Art McCaffrey, also associated with the City schools for a time, gave a rundown on the recently held Sports' Banquet, and gave a strong vote of thanks to the Key Clubbers who provided the dish-washing & kitchen cleaning help. Nice work, Fellows!

"Van" van Cleve introduced Mrs. E. Meerhomer of the American Field Service who, in turn, introduced Miss C. Ryder, our A.F.S. student who went to Australia. She showed slides of Sydney and the area in which she lived, and said she was most impressed by the warm friendliness of the Aussies.

NEW MEMBERS: Tony D'Agosta, 1st American Title Co.
Elvin (not "Elwin") Jackson

N.B. The annual pancake breakfast will be held on Saturday, May 6, 78 followed by the Annual Golf Tourney on Sunday, May 7, 1978.

STOP THE PRESSES AND NOW HEAR THIS:

THERE WILL BE AN IMPORTANT MEETING OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS AT PRESIDENT FRED HALEY'S HOME (SEE BACK OF BULLETIN FOR ADDRESS) AT 7:00 PM ON TUESDAY, MARCH 28th, 1978. ALL DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS ARE INVITED AND WILL ATTEND.

The annual Pancake Breakfast, to be held on Saturday, May 6, 1978, will be under the chairmanship of Bob Young, the rancher.

So much for incidentals and now down to business;

Meeting of 3/21/78:

We missed seeing Bob Malone's round, ruddy face in our midst, and, even more so, missed the Key Clubbers he usually brings with him!

We welcomed guest Bill Drew, father of one of this town's more notorious realtors, and Dave Hinton, the new manager of our local Safeway outlet. Dave wasn't a guest for long; he grabbed an application for membership form, completed it, and tendered it immediately with the necessary cash. Sponsor Dick Saxton, taken a bit aback, saw a series of fine payments being charged to his meager account.

Bud Christensen was fined 25¢ for not sitting at the table at which he is usually found. This writer can remember when we were fined for not sitting at a different table each week.

Three tickets for $1.00 gave you a chance of winning a canned ham; Garry Rosenberg did. OI!

Oh boy-a guy no sooner joins the Club than it's found that this is his birthday. The above noted Dave Hinton paid the $5.00, feeling that Dick Saxton might have some trouble scraping it up.

Our speaker was Pete Waller of the Healdsburg Parks & Recreation Dept. He told us about the long range planning of his department, with particular emphasis on the future City swimming pool possibilities. The most hopeful comment he made was that the $175,000.00 grant from Sacramento must be put to use by June 30, 1980. This thing, evidently, is going to materialize, Gents, but it might cost us taxpayers a few dollars additional to get it through.

It will be worth it!

KIWANIS BULLETIN

MEETING OF MARCH 28, 1978

ANNOUNCEMENTS: The AD HOC Committee will meet at Waldo Iverson's at 7:30 PM on Monday, April 3, 1978
 The Geyserville Kiwanis Club will have its weekly dinner meeting at the Geyserville Grange Thursday, April 6, 1978 at which the speaker will be Sheriff Don Striepek. Dinner price has been set at $6.00 per person.

Key Clubbers Rick Alves and Paul House attended with the Key Club Advisor, Gordon Langford. Mr. Langford told us of the fund raising activities utilized by the Key Club to raise funds during the past school year. Amongst other things they washed dishes and helped clean up at the American Legion and Wool Growers' Association dinners, held an all-day car wash at Mitch's Arco Station, and sponsored a "Princess Contest" at which they gave out prizes.

Their civic activities included moving the High School activity board to a more advantageous position, furnished plaques to winning High School teams. They also purchased a big frankfurter cooker (dubbed the "Hot Rod") from which they sold frankfurters at High School games.

They then spent the money generated by the fore-going by taking a trip to Squaw Valley!

We also had as guests Kurt Hahn, finance director for the City of Healdsburg, and Warren Lewis of Mid-Towne Realty who was a guest of Woody Frampton who is also in that racket.

Our "birthday boys" were Walt Wright, absentee Art Larson, Neil Iverson, and Art McCaffrey, whose was last week but since he was absent we hit him for his dough today. Speaking of which, President Fred only hit each for $1.00; this new Prexy is starting out all right.

Our speaker was Barbara White, principal of the Healdsburg Elementary School. She told us about the new system being tested in the school whereby students who are advanced in a subject beyond their grade will join those in the grade ahead when they are being taught said course. Conversely, those who are slow in a subject are sent back to the grade behind to continue the subject at a level commensurate to their abilities. She told us that they do not hold back a student with this system since doing so develops problems, particularly of a social nature.

This system makes sense!
