Thank you Dick, for a fine program last week. The Castro Valley Club is to be commended for the project they have going.

This week is Public School Week and the chairmen will be By Gibbs who has a musical program to present.

Contact Bud Christensen if you have a particular program in mind. Bud is scheduled thru June 5th and can arrange dates after that date.

It was nice to see John Cross back but sorry to hear that Lee Sayre is on the sick list. Get well soon, Lee.

Welcome to new member, the Reverend "Floyd" Barnett.

Chairman Waldo Iversen got a six man bowling team together for the Sonoma Interclub last Tuesday night. The sixth man was none other than our Lt. Gov. Cy Vassar. A good time was had by all.

Public School Week was observed last week with By Gibbs, Chairman, featuring the Elementary District band directed by George Izzett and the chorus directed by Joy Hindman.

This week Jim Parton has arranged for a speaker from the Social Department of the Salvation Army.

Bernie Beller would like to have all money for Pancake tickets turned in as soon as possible.

Attendance is slipping a little. Dick Holtzen asks for a better effort by all.

We will again have a Gold Fish Booth at the Future Farmers Fair on May 24th. Ted Kellogg will have assignment sheet out soon. Walt Wright is arranging for the Float and is gunning for First Prize.

Tickets have been purchased and the bus has been ordered for the S.F. Giants game on June 24th with Milwaukee. See Ira, Van or Larry for tickets.

Thank you Jim Parton for an excellent program last week. Al Underhill is program chairman this week and he has arranged for Mr. S. J. Schatz to speak to us. Mr. Schatz is a member of the International Graphoanalysis Society, Inc. Better check your dictionary on that one.

President Tom was pleased with the fine turnout for the Governors visit and thanks all concerned.

Nice to see Lee Sayre back after his short illness.

Thanks to District Attorney Maddux we know a little more about the inner workings of a important county office. This week Ira Rosenberg has arranged a "Planning Commission" program.

Don't forget to pay up for baseball game tickets - 10.50 per - Ven, Ira or Larry.

Congratulations to Al Barbieri, after 15 years of persistent, hard work, Al realized the dedication of the Healdsburg Boy's Club. A job well done and one that Al can use some help to continue it's success.

Board of Directors meeting will be held next month at Bud Knutson on June 5th at 7:30. Make-ups, take notice.

Thanks to the extra, hard work by Larry and Fran Carson and gang, the float in the FFA parade was the best one in several years. It was very nice.

Election Day is next week on June 5th and just as a reminder we should not only consider the candidates that are running but to study the various propositions on the ballot before going into the voters booth. It's our chance to have some say on government.
