

"WE BUILD!"

THE BUILDER

Last Tuesday was a good lunch meeting----packed full for 90 minutes with a dandy speaker.

Doctor Nelson Alexander will have hosted at his camp on Mill Creek your Board of Directors for their monthly meetings last Wednesday evening. As a member of that board, I hope decisions will be made commensurate with the time and energy put forth.

Waldo Iverson, is chairman of an Inter Club to be held on June 15 in Lake County, to leave Federated Church at 6 A.M. and start with an 8 A.M. breakfast meeting in Nice followed by a noon meeting at Lakeport, golf at Buckingham.

Glen Davis spoke up on the Junior Golf Benefit at our own Healdsburg course commencing with a shot gun start at 9 A.M. (be there by 8:30 to get in place), refreshemnts at midpoint in play , open bar from finish play about two until Fran Branern's BBQ chicken at three, followed by the award of golf prizes and then raffle of some $800. in cash and merchandise. You are welcome to dinner above at $3.00 per person. The raffle has got to be the biggest value of the season.

Key Clubbers, Paul House and David Wendt were in attendance and reported a mighty $940. raised in their two recent evening events to add to the Rick Domenicelli Fund. Good work Gordon Langford and your Key Club. We were happy for your success. And thanks to those in attendance who augmented that fund.

Willits Interclub included: Carl Gallups, Past Lt. Governor, Harvey Sawyers, Bob Thompson, L.A. Duffy, Darrell Forrester, Ken Samuels, Vice-President. Your attendance was appreciated Willits and enjoyable. We look forward to returning your call on our Inter Club Fly-In on June 27.

Ronald Lewman, General Operations Manager of South Bay Forest Products was the speaker of the day arranged by Chuck Reichel. South Bay purchased and now operates the Sonoma Wood Products. His talk was most interesting; A Gold Star to Chuck for a good program.

And for our President, "Fred, Bob Young and the others you left behind are like the IRS - we never forget! We wish you a Happy Birthday and will expect pay-up on your return with fine, fee, and penalty interest, please.

"WE BUILD!"

THE BUILDER

KIWANIS BULLETIN
June 20, 1978

Two Tuesday's ago Ken Gonsalves was the first to respond to the low key plea from Paul House to make up the $60. needed by the Key Club, and gain the $220. from Drama Club for the Rick Domenichelli Fund. Ken, you are gifted with an accelerated take-off--nourish it and age will never be a problem.

Also held over from last week's bulletin report was the Earl Osborne presentation to Healdsburg High School Senior Class Scholars. Patricia Syfert, President of the Senior Class, was recognized as the outstanding citizen student and awarded the Kiwanis Plaque. Mike Strawn and Kathy McDonald were also present and each was promised a cash scholarship they had earned for their leadership, scholarship and participation in school and civic activities.

Mark your calendar now--the regular Tuesday meeting July 4 is cancelled. There will be no food, no fines, no fellowship, no round table and no fun.

This past Tuesday was another good meeting under Vice President Bob Young, except for the Charity Fund which he missed again (makes you human, bob), his proficiency has reached the point of "An Olde Hand." Could we be at a point where we rate another new leader. Since Oct. 78, there has been Jack Butler, then Fred Haley, and now Bob Young. Four months to go.

Speaking of Bob Young, it was good to see old Navy shipmate Bob Young present, guest of Van. Bring him back, Van. 99 years in the Navy only seasoned him.

Chuck Reichel announced a cash donation of $2,800 from Healdsburg Kiwanis to the Healdsburg Playground Fund for purchase of all equipment needed to build an obstacle course. You'll be reading of this in next week's Healdsburg Tribune. Good work on the part of the Board of Directors and the Chuck Reichel Committee. We got in on a good one here.

Garrett Rosenberg passed another mile stone (no pun), was serenaded with our best $5.00 Happy Birthday.

Glen Davis gave a run down on the Junior Golf Benefit, which provided almost total involvement of our membership. It was a real fund raiser with hard work by many, play by 68 golfers, support by 40 merchants and a chicken BBQ put on by Fran Branern's Committee that was delicious. Sixteen and under golf tyros will long remember the clinics to be put on this summer by our local pro. Gary Williams, it's yours from here on-----Good Luck! Glen Davis and his golfers will support you.

"WE BUILD!"

THE BUILDER

Kiwanis Club
6-27-78

Another outstanding meeting: Fred Haley returned, gave the invocation, paid a neat $5.00 for a birthday song and Ken Gonsalves chaired a delightfully different program feturing a beautiful actress - comedienne who is just exactly 86 years young. Wow Wee!

Greg Down, aspirant student of Engineering at Fresno State, was Bob Young's guest.

Roland Grist accompanied his wife Lucille. Roland was a guest, Lucille an important part of the program.

Jim Silviera, who grossed 67 in the Jr. Golf Benefit Tournament, paid $2.00 under the President's duress for a clipping of his picture in the last issue of the Tribune----some ego here but for sure more compliance. In any case, 67 is a score to be proud of----golly!

Round Table June 27 was announced to support the wholesale exodus of fly-in Kiwanians to Willits.

Ken Gonsalves announced a Giants-Cincinnati baseball bus trip for Sept. 17. Details and sign-up will follow.

The Walter Marshall funeral on June 21 at ten was announced.

Waldo reported a successful Lake County Inter-Club-2 clubs, five Healdsburgers: Ed Langhart, Frank Balbi, Bud Christensen, Walt Wright and Waldo.

Another 3-fer raffle: Doc Alexander, first time raffle winner, won a beautifully wrapped gift. What was in it, Doc?

Reviving another old tradition this week the Program Chairman presented Earl Osborn an admission prize, wrapped gift. What, Earl?

Chairman of the day, Ken Gonsalves introduced June DeRoche who entertained us with songs like, All for One, One for All (Gracie Fields), all the way to, There's a Tavern in the Town, with take offs on W. C. Fields and others. Lucille Grist at the piano supported June in her musical renditions. This was complete entertainment, a professional performance--a novel and wonderful program. Ken you did it and you did it well. Congratulations!
