Along the K T-R-A-I-L: . . . One thing you can say about the Hole-In-One Contest -it was a real sizzler! Congratulations are due all concerned -it was a real success. . . . Could it be that Bill K will have a talking Chevy for his program on the 23rd? Hot weather certainly proves the worth of the invention of the bottle opener

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

A convention is a gathering of important people who can do nothing, but together can decide that nothing can be done. Fred Allen.

THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM - July 23, 1968

The speaker today will be L. L. Wenke, M.D., world traveler, and a Healdsburg resident. Dr. Wenke sees the world through the eyes of a ship's surgeon. He will give us an up-to-date review of the Southeast Asian countries. Bill Kassin will be the Kiwanian-of-the-Day.

NEXT WEEK'S PROGRAM - July 30, 1968

The program is being arranged by Ted Kellogg who is calling on Henry A. Weinland to be the speaker.

Along the K T-R-A-I-L: Few of us were aware that our 45th anniversary as a club fell on July 10th - such longevity is a testimonial to the principals of Kiwanis and the solid standards that the local members have embraced. The call has gone out for bowlers for the teams this fall to represent K -see Bruno. It was good to see the waiters on the move toward the BBQ they are indebted to the cooks. Today is the deadline for tickets to be handed in for the Hole-In-One contest. Prexy Jerry reports from the convention that memberships will be increased 50¢ per member starting with 1969 and that the magazine will also be increased by 50¢. . . In other action the fiscal year was moved to October 1st.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

A few men build cities - the rest live in them.
A few men project subways -the rest ride in them.
A few men erect skyscrapers and factorys - and the rest toil in them.

THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM - July 30, 1968

The Ag and Conservation chairman has been looking to his resources and arranged this program. Henry A. Weinland, Santa Rosa, who has retired after a long and productive career with the Extension Service of the University of California, will be the speaker. He served in the farm advisor's office in SR at the time of retirement. He will present an illustrated lecture on the South Atlantic world. Ted Kellogg will be the Kiwanian-of-the-Day.

Along the K T-R-A-I-L: Thought for a vacationer:
"It is a good safe rule to sojourn in every place as if you meant to spend your life there, never omitting an opportunity of doing a kindness, speaking a true word, or making a friend." . . . Well, the days of summer have fast flown and soon life will be governed again by the scholar's clock. . . . Overheard:
"My wife doesn't wear a girdle — she just lets herself go . . ."

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

"If a thing is old, it is a sign that it was fit to live. Old families, old customs, old styles survive. The guaranty of continuity is quality. Old-fashioned hospitality, old-fashioned politeness, old-fashioned honor in transaction and work had qualities of survival. They will come back.

Capt. Edward V. Rickenbacker
