TRIVIA CORNER

Prize to the Winner

Due to the lack of a program the bulletin author has decided to sponsor a little contest. The first Kiwanian to call my answering machine and leave the correct answer to the following trivia question wins two free movie passes to the Raven Theatre.

What was the busiest 24 hour period ever in the history of the telephone company in the United States.

MEETING NOTES

Once again president Kurt opened the meeting in fine fashion with the ringing of the bell. The patriotic Song God Bless America was lead by Carl Elze, the Pledge of Allegiance by Jerry Strong and the Invocation by Ed Collins.

Announcements were made by Vince Dougherty regarding the Western Steak Barbecue. A choice of chicken or steak will be offered this year. President Kurt announced the Installation dinner which will be held September 28th at the Villa Annex.

Birthday boys included Kurt Hahn and Fran Branern. The regular rendition was opted for. The club also held an impromptu election for the most handsome member which was won by no other than Vince Dougherty. Fines were also dealt out in random fashion to several members who for one reason or another crossed paths with the prez!
