THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM - August 13, 1968

Today's presentation will be by a Marine Corps officer who has been on duty with the military assistance program in Vietnam. He will discuss the problems involved in trying to help the Vietnamese bring order and direction in their villages. Garry Rosenberg, a Marine Reserve Officer himself, will be the Kiwanian-of-the Day.

NEXT WEEK'S PROGRAM - August 20, 1968

Dr. Don is arranging this program and is going to have the Post Office department tell us what goes on inside a mail box, and why the balance sheet is always in the red and the service never as good as people think it ought to be .....

Along the K T-R-A-I-L:....."There is always time for courtesy", is an old saying, and there is always time to leave your regrets with the chairman and ask to be excused, if you must leave the meeting early. It was one of the problems discussed by the directors Tuesday. "Not a great problem in our Club," said they....
...If you missed the GLOF bash Thursday night, you missed history in the making and a mighty good time...
...We are shooting for five bowling teams this year -- be sure you're on hand at Waldo's Wednesday night after 5:30 for a dip, nip and bowlers' BBQuick as the bowlers organize for the coming year. . . . Bowlers may also want to roll a few at the convention at Reno this year on September 29-Oct.1. . The club is in receipt of a letter from Club Kiwanis De Bucaramanga, Bucaramanga, Colombia, Sur America, signed by Prospero Chinchilla, presidente, congratulating our club on its 45th year..

THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM - August 20, 1968

The Post Office will be the focal point on today's program. Postmaster Perry Austin will be the speaker and divulge the inside scoop on how a post office operates. He plans to devote some time to question and answers - so have yours ready. Don Oakleaf will be the Kiwanian-of-the-Day.

NEXT WEEK'S PROGRAM - August 27, 1968

Jerry Miller is going to spark this and at last report he was on the hot line tying things together for the program.

SPECIAL REMINDER: Today is election day for Club officers -be sure to be there to vote.

Along the K T-R-A-I-L: The big event for August will be the Big John Strong Circus which the Board has voted to sponsor in Healdsburg on August 29th. This is to be a special fund raising event to assist the local Boys' Club. The circus will set up on a lot in North Healdsburg and give an afternoon and evening performance on the 29th. The times will be 4:00 and 7:30 p.m. . . . A lapse in the diet is the pause that refreshes. . . .

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

(On this an election year)

Falsehoods not only disagree with truths, but usually quarrel among themselves.

THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM - August 27, 1968

Gerry Miller adapted today's program to one of his favorite indulgences - recreation. He has selected Coy Gore of Santa Rosa to be the speaker and treat the subject. Gerry will be the Kiwanian-of-the-Day.

NEXT WEEK'S PROGRAM - September 3, 1968

Anyone know where August went? Jed Mitchell is wondering the same thing because it's almost time for his program and he has hardly had time to think about it, much less arrange for a speaker. Anyway, he'll be ready to pump one up when next Tuesday does come around.

ELECTION RESULTS

For President:	Ed Langhart
Vice President:	Bill Kassin
Treasurer:	Ed Burke
Directors:	Francis Branern
	Al Valette
	Vad Jelton
	Tom Conklin

Along the K T-R-A-I-L: . . . . Our thanks to the Nominating and Election committee who successfully conducted the event: Tom B., chairman, By Gibbs, Waldo Iversen, Ken Gonsalves, Gerry Miller and Walt Wright. . . . It has been proved beyond doubt that behind every successful candidate there is a good nominating committee! And it has also been proved beyond doubt that with reasonable care, the human body will last a lifetime. (P.G. & E. Bull.)
