TODAY'S PROGRAM

Key Club Committee chairman Lee Gunnerson will present members of the Healdsburg Key Club.

CALENDAR

September 17: Banquet honoring Lt. Gov. Larry Brown of Ukiah, 6:30 p.m., Villa Chanticleer Annex.

September 20: Installation dinner for 1994-95 officers of the Healdsburg Kiwanis Club, Villa Annex.

LAST WEEK'S MEETING

President Ted presided; Ray B at the piano, Carl Elze directed singing of patriotic song and the happy birthday rendition for Rick Alves.

ANNOUNCEMENTS: President Ted announced that the club is looking for a secretary for the 1994-95 year. Free dues. See Ted if you want to volunteer for this very important position.

GOLF TOURNAMENT: Jim Silveira announced that drivers for the annual golf tournament are being sought. The tourney is set for September 28-October 2. See Phil Rice if you want to help.

FINES: President Ted fined Jerry Strong for speeding to the meeting. Jerry said he was only testing his new brakes ! Les Davis fined $2 for losing the fine box ! Marc Romani fined for going to work so early on Saturday morning.

HAPPY AND SAD DOLLARS: John Bippart happy that Marc is working so hard for the company; Ed Collins happy for his fun time in Wyoming; Tad Curtis sad that there were so few spectators at the Kiwanis/Rotary Softball game but happy to be back from Hawaii; Vince happy that Oklahoma won but sad he didn't stay to see Jerry Rice break his record at Candlestick; Rick Alves sad his 10 year old son was "monkeying" with the score board at the Kiwanis/Rotary game; Hunt glad he caught a fish on his recent trip but sad he missed the game; Wayne happy about the game but sad he didn't get at least 7 new patients; Francis Passalacqua happy that he will be honored by the Sonoma County Bar Association at the end of this month.

KIWANIS 6 - ROTARY 1 : Rich Lehrmann reported on the great game played Sept. 1 at Rec Park. Lots of hustle, action, top notch catching. Kiwanis took over the lead in first inning with 3 runs, 3 more runs in 3rd inning with Rotary finally getting one run in final inning. Small but enthusiastic crowd watched Rotary go down to defeat !

PROGRAM: CPA Chuck Reichel was both program chairman and speaker. He gave a very informative and well thought out talk on estate taxes and how to avoid and/or reduce them by means of A and B Trusts and gift giving. He pointed out that giving to the Healdsburg Club's Memorial Scholarship Fund is one way of helping to reduce your tax liabilities and it would also increase the fund's goal to assist worthy recipients. See Chuck for more information.

Date ?

THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM: Bob Taylor will introduce Teal Love who will talk to us on earthquake preparedness.

LAST WEEK'S PROGRAM: Carl and Ray asked the members to sing "America" to start our meeting. Somehow we got into an unusual key, but the group rose to the occasion. Hunt Conrad led the Pledge and Rev. Ray Baskin gave the Invocation.

BITS AND PIECES: Gary Solem is back after a long leave of absence. Good to see you, Gary. You've been missed. Bob Malone told the members of his table all about taking his grandson and a friend on a wild turkey hunt. Too bad Bob didn't get to tell everyone about this adventure. Malone says he knows plenty of turkeys. Don't think he meant anyone in our group.

President Ted gave the first reading of the Nominating Committee's recommendations for the next term's officers and Board. He asked for floor nominations. More later. Ted also read a request from the Sonoma Club for help in selling programs at the N.A.S.C.A.R. Race to be held on May 13, 14 and 15. Someone suggested this might be qualified as an Inter-Club if four from our club sign up.

Our President laid a light fine on Kurt Hahn for his new honor of leading the Boy Scouts. Good goin' Kurt.

HAPPY & SAD DOLLARS: Hunt - Happy to see Gary Solem back. Rick Alves - Happy to beat Vince's ball team. Vince felt bad! Vince - Happy about Kiwanis banner on the fence - Win or lose. Dorsey - Happy - hopes our new member Marc Romani won't screw up while he's away in Reno. We're all happy to see our good and faithful friend, Joe Coppa. What a guy!

Barbara Iversen called and asked me to please thank all Kiwanians that helped out on the Science Fair and a special thanks to Tad Curtis.

MOTHERS DAY: Rick Alves asked for a vote on having a special luncheon for Mothers Day and of course asking our ladies to join us. Vote was a positive YES.

BIRTHDAY SALUTE: Bob Meyer paid a big $10.00 to have the standard version but sung real loud. It was! Many happy returns, Bob.

LAST WEEK'S SPEAKER was Jan Urdyik who was introduced by Jay Bemke. Jan explained the inner-workings of the Santa Rosa Symphony. A very nice presentation.

See You All Tuesday.

LOTTO - A big win for Bob Maize.
