PROGRAM CALENDAR

September 29, 1998

September 29, The Installation Dinner will be held this noon. This is in response to the vote taken at the recent BBQ at Brandt's Beach. The cost of the meal will be $7.00 for guests only as members have already paid. Wives, sweethearts, friends, and relatives are all encouraged to attend. Bring as many as you like but be sure to alert President Alvie with the count so that he can alert the kitchen crew.

October 6, John Bippart will introduce Mr. Albert Yee whose topic is "The British & Americans in Hong Kong History". Be sure to bring a friend to hear more about this fascinating island.

October 13, Wayne Carr will bring us Joel Kiff who will speak on "School to Career".

October 20, T.B.A. George Loyer will tell us about the "Ferguson Observatory".

ANNOUNCEMENTS

October 8. Thursday, Board meeting at the police department. 7:00 PM. Both last years and this years Boards should attend.

The American Legion Auxiliary has asked for input on what we would like to have at lunch. Now is your opportunity to tell the chef what you would like to eat. Make it good!

Paul Garayalde was inducted as our newest member. He is thirty three years old and in about two weeks will be married to "Bridget". He is a fifth generation resident of Sonoma County and is Assistant Manager at our local Exchange Bank. Be sure to see Paul, introduce yourself and sign his apron.

George Clough announced that he is moving into his new home. He is now an official member of our community.

Rich Lehrmann was very happy to  announce that his son scored a 50 yard touch down at the game in Cotati. Proud Papa!

Ron Kron was ready to come to the rescue of the American Legion Auxiliary. He noticed that their banner was displayed in reverse announcing their distress. In true Kiwanis fashion, we are always ready to help!

LAST WEEK'S MEETING

Don Reukema as incoming President, filled in when the announced program failed to show. He recruited both Mark McCoppin as Key Club Advisor for the shoes.

Don Reukema also made us aware of another challenge facing the club. As the sponsor of Boy Scout Troop 21 we need to be more aware of how the troop is operating and how the leadership for the troop is conducting meetings, training scouts, and organizing activities. We have heard what a great record the troop has in bringing scouts to Eagle status, but we may not be aware of any particular problems that might reflect badly on the troop and scouting in general. John Bippart will keep us posted on his progress in clearing up this problem.
